

EDUCATOR'S HALL OF FAME

The AAEAHP Educator's Hall of Fame identifies and recognizes educators and others for outstanding contributions to the educational experiences of African Americans in Dallas County. Inductees are historical and contemporary. Since 2004, 183 individuals have been inducted into the AAEAHP Hall of Fame and 38 special awards have been presented recognizing outstanding members of the community.

We invite individuals and businesses to help us celebrate our Class of 2025 by purchasing an advertisement in our souvenir book. This is a great way to recognize these excellent educators and special award recipients. We look forward to your participation.

WE ARE A 501(c)(3) ORGANIZATION. YOUR DONATION IS TAX DEDUCTIBLE.

AAEAHP BACKGROUND

AAEAHP is a collaborative effort of local educators and the African American Museum which was founded in 2002 to collect and maintain a repository of artifacts, documents, and visual images that record the African American education experiences in Dallas County.

MISSION

To raise the awareness of the African American educational experience in Dallas County; collect and preserve archives; recognize outstanding individuals; and support students and young educators.
